Item 14 – Proposal for appointment of the Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee proposes the following with respect to the Company's nomination procedure:

The Company must have a Nominating Committee consisting of one member appointed by each of the three largest shareholders (number of votes). The names of the three owner representatives and the shareholders they represent must be published by the Company as soon as the Nominating Committee has been appointed but no later than six months before the Annual General Meeting. The largest shareholders will be contacted by the Chairman of the Board based on the Company's index of registered shareholders provided by Euroclear Sweden AB as of 31 August 2012. If any of the three largest shareholders declines to exercise its right to appoint a member to the Nominating Committee, then the next largest shareholder must be given the opportunity to appoint a member.

The term of office for the Nominating Committee lasts until a new nominating committee is appointed. The chair of the Nominating Committee must be the member who represents the largest shareholder, unless the members unanimously agree on another chair.

If a member leaves the Nominating Committee before his/her work is completed, then the shareholder that appointed the member has the right to appoint a new Nominating Committee member. The members of the Nominating Committee do not receive remuneration.

If a significant change occurs in the Company's ownership structure and a shareholder (which after this significant ownership change becomes one of the three largest shareholders) expresses the desire to be a Nominating Committee member, then the Nominating Committee shall offer the shareholder a place on the Nominating Committee by replacing the representative of the smallest shareholder (number of votes) on the Nominating Committee.

If any of the shareholders who appointed a representative to the Nominating Committee sells a substantial part of its shares in the Company before the Annual General Meeting, then the member appointed by such shareholder shall resign and be replaced by a new member appointed by a shareholder who as a result of the change in the Company's ownership structure has become one of the three largest shareholders or if such shareholder declines then the next largest shareholder is given the opportunity to appoint a member. Changes in composition of the Nominating Committee must be immediately publicly announced.

The Nominating Committee's task is to submit proposals to the Annual General Meeting for:

Issues regarding the terms of employment for the President & Chief Executive Officer will be prepared by the Board of Directors' compensation committee and will be resolved by the Board of Directors. The President & Chief Executive Officer resolves upon the terms of employment for the other Company key management after consent from the Board's compensation committee. It is proposed that the Board of Directors shall be authorised to deviate from the principles for compensation of the Company's key management if certain circumstances are at hand in a specific case.
